Five thousand baby sweet potato plants, called “slips”, will be distributed by the Garden and the Youth Council at the Simi Valley Street Fair in May. The plan is to have members of the community plant the slips. A one day harvest will take place in October, with all potatoes being donated to those who don’t have enough food.

6. Informational Presentation

a. The City of Simi Valley Code Enforcement’s Role in Community Preservation

Trinece Rose Bandy and Francesca Dominick, Code Compliance Officers, gave the presentation. They explained that Code Compliance implements community goals such as protecting property values and addressing quality of life issues through the enforcement of the City’s Municipal Code. The focus is on education as many individuals may not be aware of the rules and do not know they are in violation until they are informed.

The majority of enforcement is reactive. Code compliance officers respond to complaints from citizens, whose names are always kept confidential. They also recognize property owners who model compliance by leaving door hangers that thank them for their commitment to community beautification.

7. New Business

a. Election of Officers

By consensus of the Executive Board, Mary Oaks was elected Chair, Amin Maghsoodi was elected Vice Chair, and Edgar Escobar was elected Secretary.

8. Community Services Coordinator's Report

Emily Habib informed the Executive Board that orientation for the latest recruitment had been completed and that interviews would take place at the end of the month for the July 2018 term. She noted that at the June 18, 2018 City Council meeting, Executive Board members completing their terms would receive Certificates of Appreciation. She also informed the Executive Board that there would be a Joint Councils meeting on June 12, 2018.

9. Executive Board Comments

Amin Maghsoodi thanked Ian Davis for his work as an alternate on the Community Projects Grant Committee. Jim Woods noted that he drove through the Texas Tract and that he saw very few lots that had spaces for RVs to park.

10. Adjournment: Thursday, June 14, 2018, 7:30 p.m.

By consensus of the Executive Board, the meeting was adjourned at 8:22 p.m.
