2. Agenda Review

No changes were made to the agenda.

3. Approval of Minutes

A motion was made by Brian Kane and seconded by Nora Frost to approve the July 19, 2022 minutes as presented. The motion passed.

4. Correspondence

Brian Kane reported that he had received correspondence from some homeowners in the Madison County development. They are unhappy that fire insurance is more expensive and more difficult to obtain due to increased fire danger.

5. Public Statements/Comments

A resident inquired about the process to report and enforce watering violations. Amy Obringer explained how to go about it.

6. Informational Presentation

The City’s CERT Program and the Disaster Service Worker Team

Phil Engrim, volunteer Disaster Service Worker, gave the presentation. The CERT Program prepares people for disasters such as earthquakes and floods. Part of the preparation is to have food and water for three days after the disaster. After completing CERT, people can become Disaster Services Workers, who are called out to assist in emergencies.

7. New Business: None

8. Community Services Coordinator's Report

Emily Habib informed the Executive Board that going forward, the room set-up would return to the pre-COVID horse shoe layout. This will allow Executive Board members to see and get to know each other.

9. Executive Board Comments

Bobby Calderon noted that some of his neighbors are disappointed with the City's efforts to enforce the one day per week watering schedule.

10. Adjournment: Tuesday, September 20, 2022, 7:00 p.m.

By the consensus of the Executive Board, the meeting was adjourned at 7:53 p.m.
