4. Correspondence: None

5. Public Statements/Comments: None

6. Informational Presentation

Annika Sumbly, Executive Director, gave the presentation. In early 2022, 141 homeless individuals were counted in Simi Valley, though the number is most likely double by this time. The Samaritan Center's daytime drop-in services include meals, a food pantry, showers, laundry, and clothing. They manage winter overnight shelter services. They also offer full case management services for those who want to become self-supporting and independent. These services encompass assistance with finding a job and housing, identification (ID) vouchers and life skills mentoring. Over the last year, they placed nine people in drug and alcohol treatment, helped 14 people find employment and assisted seven people in finding housing.

7. New Business: None

8. Community Services Coordinator's Report

Emily Habib discussed the current Neighborhood Council recruitment. She also noted that there would be no meeting in December. She informed the Executive Board that the October 29, 2022 Emergency Expo and Street Fair was very successful for the Neighborhood Councils, with over 50 people signing up for their electronic mailing lists. Finally, she announced that newly elected District 4 City Council member Rocky Rhodes was interviewing for a Planning Commissioner.

9. Executive Board Comments

Bobby Calderon discussed the possibility of requesting that the Neighborhood Council 4 City Council liaison attend a future meeting.

10. Adjournment: Tuesday, December 20, 2022, 7:00 p.m.

By the consensus of the Executive Board, the meeting was adjourned at 8:33 p.m.
